

Davis Dashes To Victory At Roxbury Mile I

ROXBURY – New Milford High School distance running standout Stosh Davis, 16, captured the Roxbury Mile I Saturday, May 24, with a time of 5-minutes, 17-seconds over the rolling course.

Davis also was the champion last Thanksgiving in the 3.0-mile Run For A Cure, which is sponsored annually by the Roxbury Recreation Commission, the Roxbury Congregational Church and the Roxbury Road Race Series.

Andrew Levy, 26, who grew up in Chappaqua, N.Y. placed second in 5:21 over the layout, which stretched from near the end of Apple Lane to the end of the parking lot at the Booth Free Elementary School on South Street.

Theresa Krebs, 44, of Roxbury was the first female finisher and took 13th overall with a 6:14 clocking.

The Roxbury Mile II will be run Saturday, Aug. 30, at 8:30 a.m.

The weekly Roxbury Road Race Series will continue Saturday, May 31, at 8:30 a.m. with a 4.8-mile run that will travel along part of Judd's Bridge Road. There will be no entry fee.

The Bill Burley MidSummer Championship will be held Saturday, July 19, at 8:30 a.m. over a 5.0-mile course.

There will be a $5 entry fee that can be paid that morning from 7 to 8:20. Proceeds will go to the Roxbury park improvement fund. The top overall male and female finishers will each receive a $10 gift certificate to an area running store.

The race is named after the founder and initial head director of the road race series.

The races, which are sanctioned by the Roxbury Recreation Commission, start and finish near the Everett Hurlburt Community Park at 18 Apple Lane.
