Deming, Masopust Prevail On Challenging Mallory Road Route

ROXBURY – Former season champion Chris Deming was able to withstand a challenge from Alison Masopust, the female season champion the last two years, to win a 7.25-mile course dotted with uphill at the Roxbury Road Races Club series.

Deming, 52, of Danbury navigated The Boot course, which includes a trip up Mallory Road and down Flag Swamp Road on Saturday, May 18, in 50-minutes, 30-seconds – 6:58-per-mile pace – to score the victory.

Masopust, 35, of Morris was the runner-up in 50:39.

The weekly series will resume on Saturday, May 25, at 8:30 a.m. with the Roxbury Mile I, which will stretch from near the end of Apple Lane to the end of the parking lot at the Booth Free School on South Street.

Runners can enter though a $25 season membership or a $2 weekly waiver.

Youth runners can compete for free by filling out the weekly waiver form.

The races, which are sanctioned by the Roxbury Recreation Commission, start and finish near the Everett Hurlburt Community Park at 18 Apple Lane.
